Hanford High School Drama, under the direction of Matt Legget since 1990, has built a reputation for quality theater instruction and production. The students participate in classroom instruction, in regional and state competitions and in full-scale performances. Staging a range of performances—from Shakespeare’s comedies and tragedies to musicals like Singing in the Rain—the program thrives on excellent leadership, student talent and parent and community involvement.

Each year, students earn double superior ratings at the regional and state drama competitions. In 2005, the troupe took the show on the road to the Fringe Theatre Festival in Edinburgh, Scotland—the largest theater event in the world. And in 2003, the drama staff was honored with WEA’s coveted Golden Apple Award for programming and educational excellence.

Many of our alumni go on to pursue theater or music degrees and careers in the performing arts.

$300* for a two-week session, over 50 hours of instruction.

Payment plans and scholarships are available so any student interested may attend.

The fee covers 10 days of instruction, materials, camp t-shirt, snacks, costumes, music and other support items. The final performances are free to family and friends of the Fame Campers.
