The Tri-Cities, WA Chapter of The Links, Incorporated sponsors its annual

2015 Scholarship Contest

The Tri-Cities Chapter of The Links, Incorporated (a local not-for-profit women’s service organization) is holding its annual scholarship essay contest in the Tri-Cities and surrounding areas. The scholarships are targeted for local high school seniors of African American descent pursuing higher education. This year’s essay topic focuses on health and wellness.

ESSAY TOPIC:

Campaign for Fitness

This year marks the 5th anniversary of Mrs. Obama’s campaign for fitness. Elaborate on 5 different ways her program will impact America’s youth.

(500 -1000 Words Typed)

Application packets will be available at local high school counselors’ offices beginning March 6, 2015. Deadline for submission is April 24, 2015.

For more information contact:  Joann Edwards, Services to Youth Chair 509-545-1694 (h) 201-0124(c) 585-3063 (w)